Bird Watch Weekend

After listening to an assembly this morning, some children have signed up to take part in the Great Birdwatch weekend. Children have been given a birdwatch spotting sheet, bird seed and a recipe for bird cake. It would be great if you could support your child 'birdwatching' this weekend. They need to indicate which birds are visiting their gardens within a 30 minute period. Please return the sheets on Monday so we can send them to the RSPB. We hope you have fun and thank you for your support.

Auditions will be held in class for this year's event, week commencing Monday, 5th February 2018. The children will vote for their class winner.
